

FOUR CHANCES TO EXPLORE, PERFORM, TRANSFORM, BE FORMED

EXPLORE NONVIOLENCE, JAINISM, AND FACETS OF FORGIVENESS AT THE COMMUNITY TEA AND SOCIAL JUSTICE FAIR

PRE-EVENT: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2012

What is Jainism and Ahimsa? Did you know Gandhi's birthday is Oct. 2? Come and find out all about these things and more! Stop by the Social Justice Fair to share what you know and learn something new, all while enjoying live music, art, sidewalk performers and voting in a vegan cookie bake-off. You'll find out what social justice events are happening on campus and in the community and how you can get involved!

OCTOBER 2, 2012

THREE EVENTS TO CELEBRATE AHIMSA DAY

PERFORM

LIVE THEATRE OF NONVIOLENCE

11:30-1:00pm, MUDD THEATRE BACKSTAGE

Free Lunch for CST/CLU students!

Students who studied Jainism in India will dramatize their experience. From the streets of Delhi to the cremation Ghats on the Ganges River, this is a performance not to be missed.

TRANSFORM

CHAPEL: FORGIVENESS IN OUR TRADITIONS - WOVEN YET
KNOTTED

4:00-5:00pm, KRESGE CHAPEL

Come and learn about rituals from the Jain festival of forgiveness, called Paryushana, as well as Jewish Day of Atonement, called Yom Kippur. Both of these holidays were celebrated in September. Speakers from the two traditions will reflect on the value and difficulties of these holidays and practices.

BE FORMED

EVENING PANEL: PERSPECTIVES ON FORGIVENESS AND RECONCILIATION

7:00-8:30pm, HADDON CONFERENCE CENTER

Panelists from Jain, Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, Humanist, and Sikh traditions will each give 4-minute reflections on forgiveness and reconciliation from their tradition. Each will have a chance to give a 2-minute response to another panelist. Lots of time for questions and conversation, followed by tea and snacks. Free and Open to the Public. All are welcome.
