- Thanksgiving Navkar Jaap (11/23) – was conducted by JOY. Members enjoyed the morning breakfast with a traditional touch. It was simply amazing to see entire Rang-mandap full of members chanting Navkar Mantra. If you could not attend, you should not miss this event in the future.
- "Journey of Ragas – Bandish Bahar" (12/09) – was a tremendous success. We raised appx $5K in donation. The event was attended by more than 175 members. We would like to thank all the donors and coordinators.

We are requesting all the members to sign up for bi-weekly newsletter through JSGD Mailchimp. Email is the convenient way to communicate for event update, society news, and last minute changes and/or cancellations will be conveyed through these communications. Please send email to: publications@jsgd.org to subscribe.

Our pujari, Deepakbhai & Kiranben have become grandparents again and spent their vacation in India during Nov-Dec. Many congratulations to them. Kanchanbhai & Dhanlaxmiben Patel have performed Pujari duties during this time and we sincerely thank them for such cordial help.

Just like any religious organization, we need more volunteers and as you all know that success of any event depends on support of volunteer members like you. Temple needs you; time is the most valuable gift you can give. We thank everyone who had given their support for this worthy cause and also those who will be supporting temple activities in coming months.

Once again, be safe during the winter...

Thank you!

Jain Recipe – Quinoa Dhokla

Ingredients:

1 cup Quinoa
1 cup Yellow Moong Daal
5 to 7 Thai Green Chillies
8 tbsp Yogurt
Dry Ginger Powder (Sunth)
ENO
Salt to taste
Oil for tempering
Mustard Seeds
Long Green Chillies
Curry Leaves
Hing

Method:

Wash the quinoa really well and soak quinoa and moong daal for about 4 hrs. In a mixer, blend the quinoa and moong daal along with thai green chillies & yogurt.

Put water in the dhokla maker to boil. Take the batter & add salt, dry ginger powder, ENO, and little water & mix well. Pour the batter into a greased dhokla plate & steam for 12 to 14 mins.

In a separate pan heat 2 tbsp of oil. When it is hot add hing, mustard seeds, chopped long chillies & curry leaves. Pour this over the dhokla. Let it cool and then cut into pieces and serve.

Tastes yummy while warm. Enjoy!!

MERU TERAS PUJA - JAN 14, 2018

EC Corner

- Special Request to the Society Members: We are requesting members not to leave their belongings at temple to discard. Items like old panchang, old Bhagwan pictures and lot of other religious and non-religious materials are occasionally found on table outside office area to be discarded. It is our humble request to all of you not to put out those items as we don't have any facility at the temple to dispose them properly. Thank you for your understanding and co-operation in this matter.
- Volunteers: Help Temple Help Yourself: EC and BOT team is looking for volunteers in daily operation as well as for major events. If you are available or if you know someone who is willing to donate their time to temple, please contact any EC or BOT members. Your area of interest and skill set will be utilized as an asset to our temple. The next big events are Fund Raising Event and Mahavir Janma Kalyanak celebrations. Helping temple is also a type of donation which is invaluable.
- Appeal to NON-Life Members: Please renew membership by April 1st, 2018. Membership forms are available online or in the office. Please fill it out and mail it or drop it off at temple with the payment.
- Ayambil Oli Announcement: This year's "Ayambil Oli" will start from March 23rd, 2018. If you wish to do Ayambil, please write your name on bulletin board sign-up sheet. This is very important as this will help Volunteers to prepare the food accordingly. Anyone want to do Ayambil is requested to bring their own thali, vatka, glass and spoon to help volunteers reduce amount of work. If you want to sponsor Ayambil oli (Nakro is $251), please contact, Vinay Shah at (248)-579-6553 or Shashin Shah at (248)-635-0535.

Maintenance Update

- As communicated earlier, the main entrance gate of the temple is fully operational and is closed during night. Please note below the gate "Open" timings:

M-F: 7:30 AM – 8:30 PM

S-S: 6:00 AM – 11:00 PM

- There are two major cleaning projects completed:
  - The carpet for Rang Mandap and Social hall was professionally cleaned
  - All the chairs upholstery are cleaned professionally from food spills and other spots.

We are sincerely thankful to our member who helped to complete the project above with no charge. We request members to take extra care while handling food in the social hall to maintain the cleanliness.

- All four doors leading to foyer area are now equipped with glass window panels. This is mainly to ensure member's safety while operating the door.

We appreciate the feedback from members for possible improvements to our facility. We would like to get more suggestions and preferences. This helps us to determine the needs from different eyes. While visiting the temple/walking around and if you notice any issue or need of maintenance, please bring it to our attention or contact Deval Shah (248)982-5517 or send email at maintenance@jsgd.org.

- Shravanabelagola Mahamastakabhisheka:

Shravanabelagola, nestled by the Vindhyagiri and Chandragiri Hills, protected by the monolith Bhagwan Bahubali, and home to over 2,300 years of Jain heritage, is a veritable picture postcard of our history and heritage spanning the centuries. In the town of Shravanabelagola, stands a colossal rock-cut statue of Lord Gommateshwara Shri Bahubali. (Source: <http://www.bahubalinri2018.org> )

- Kumbhalgadh (Rajsthan):

About 10km from our prachin Tirth Ranakpur, there is a place called Kumbhalgarh Fort. It has second longest wall (after the Great Wall of China) in the world.

The fort is about the age of Ranakpur Tirth. Interestingly, this historical fort has 360 temples, out of which 300 are Jain temples. The fort is under central government hold and none of the jain temples are in operation. However, there is parshwanath bhagwan temple near to the main fort where you can see Pratimaji from locked door. Please do visit this place if time and opportunity permits. – Link to wikipedia

Jain Story - Shri Haribhadrasuri

Acharya Haribhadrasuri, a great author with powerful personality, had written many books in Sanskrit and Prakrit. His versatile scholarship, unmatched knowledge, acute critical faculty and mastery of language have earned for him a distinguished place in the history of Indian literature. The 1444 books deemed to have been written by him are regarded as the most valuable treasure of knowledge of the Jain religion. He was the first commentator of the Agamas (Jain canonical literature) and through his books he blazed a new trail in meditation.

Uncommon and extraordinary was his life. He was the family priest of king Jitari of Chittor. Besides being an authority on the Veda and Darshanshastra (Jain Philosophy), he possessed thorough knowledge in 14 faculties of studies. In his own times, there was nobody in the entire country to challenge and defeat him in debate and discussions. In Kali age he thought himself to be the only scholar with the perfect knowledge of scriptures and in his great arrogance had taken a vow that if anyone defeated him he would become a disciple of that scholar.

Once upon a time, while he was passing by Dharmagar in a palanquin, he happened to listen to a gatha (verse) being sung in a tranquil and melodious voice. Pandit Haribhatt made numerous efforts to interpret its meaning but he failed to understand it. He had mastered four Vedas, all the Upanishads and eighteen Purans as also all the branches of knowledge and yet he failed to make out the meaning of the verses. He felt small and his pride in being knowledgeable began to melt. In all humility, he went to Sadhviji and requested to interpret the 'gatha' for him.

Sadhvi Mahattara Yakini requested him to come the next day in the presence of her Guru who would explain the meaning of the gatha. Accordingly, Acharya Jindattasuri arrived there the next day and offered an interpretation, whereupon Haribhatt became his disciple and in course of time Pandit Haribhatt came to be known as Acharya Haribhadrasuri.

Since Sadhvi Yakini Mahattara had done an unusual obligation by way of exposing new horizons in the pursuit of knowledge, Haribhadrasuri regarded her as his mother. Now he disliked to be known by the epithet of Kalikalsarvagna (omniscient in the Kali age). As he acquired a deep understanding and knowledge of Jain scriptures, he called himself alpamati - a person having very little knowledge. He concluded every book that he wrote with an invariable expression of deep gratitude to Sadhvi Yakini Mahattara and introduced himself as Dharmaputra of Yakini Mahattara.

Because of his hatred for the Jain religion Haribhatt used to say that it would be better to die by being crushed under the feet of a mad elephant than to seek shelter in a Jain Temple. Ironically enough the very Haribhatt had to seek a shelter in a Jain temple to save himself from a mad elephant. Having looked at the idol of Jina he had also joked saying 'your body itself is an evidence of your having relished sweet dishes, because if hunger struck, a tree it would not be fresh and green forever'.

But strange are the ways of Nature. In course of time, he himself came to realize the significance and greatness of the Jain religion and the Jain temple and subsequently he modified his thoughts and words. It is so said that he used to write books at night in the light of a gem given to him by Lallig Sheth.

His life-time is supposed to be from A. D. 700 to 770.

Jai Jinendra!

JOY has been busy the past couple of months organizing successful activities. On November 23rd, we held our annual Thanksgiving Navkar Jaap and it was immensely successful. We raised the most money we ever have which will go towards both JOY and Jiv-Daya. Thank you to everyone who donated and volunteered at the event to help make it possible.

On December 9th, we held a JOY lock-in where we bonded with our fellow members through fun games and meaningful discussions. Everyone had a great time and we all became closer friends.

In January, JOY held a bake sale after Study Class where we sold muffins, cookies, and other delicious treats. It was extremely successful as we sold out. This month, JOY will be holding the annual Winter Camp where members will go to a house for a couple of days. It is JOY's most anticipated event every year, and it will be a lot of fun!

Thank You!
